INTRODUCTION OF 2016 TOUR OFFERINGS

A GHOSTLY ENCOUNTER (Since 2010)

This tour has a unique twist - YOUR GUIDE IS A GHOST! In this presentation, your ghost guide will be telling their haunted tales just as they experienced them so many years ago. Travel into their Haunted Home where you may experience the same frightening encounters. This tour may be our scariest tour ever and may not be suited for young children or the faint at heart. Once again this year the cast of Ghost Guides has been expanded for the enjoyment of repeat visitors.

E-mail: ghostlyimages@gburgtours.com for schedule of characters.

This tour joined our lineup in 2010 and became one of the most popular evening events in Gettysburg. Don't wait until the last minute to purchase tickets or you may be left out in the dark.

HAUNTED ORPHANAGE TOUR (Since 2004)

Zak Bagins of Ghost Adventures listed this building on his top 10 freakiest places in the USA.

In 2011 this tour was expanded to include time on the first floor in the area that was the dining room. You still journey down the original wooden stairs to the dingy, dark dungeon where a cruel headmistress chained the children to the stone walls. On this tour you will hear stories of the other cruel treatments she inflicted on her charges, treatments that lead to the spirits lingering throughout the building today.

As part of your adventure, your guide will take you on a short walk around the neighborhood. You will be treated to haunted tales of the Dobbin House on Steinwehr Avenue, the National Cemetery and The Hall of Presidents. The haunts behind the Orphanage are of special interest and will make you wonder if you wish to pass through the doors into the realm of the supernatural. Enter if you dare!

THE JENNIE WADE TOUR (Since 2003)

Included in this tour is a journey around the South side of town that traverses the area of East Cemetery Hill. You will stop for curious tales of ghostly soldiers, heartbroken women, Poltergeists and other assorted ghostly encounters.

You will enter through the same door where a bullet passed on July 3, 1863 and killed Jennie Wade, making her the only civilian to die during the battle of Gettysburg. The ghostly tales of this house have been recorded in numerous books and holds the proud distinction of being on the Travel Channels list of haunted houses. In October 2008, it was featured on television's Most Haunted and was singled out by the lead investigator as the MOST HAUNTED IN GETTYSBURG. You may also have seen the Jennie Wade House in segments on Ghost Adventures, Ghost Lab, Haunted History and recently GHOST HUNTERS.

The stories alone are chilling enough but now through modern technology provided by Ghost Researchers, we have evidence that cold spots roam the stairs and rooms, chains swing freely for no reason, rocking chairs move when vacant. The voice of a small boy calls out "Play With Me" and a man calls from the cellar, "We're down here".

So if you are dying to enter either of these haunted sites, we can accommodate you. Please bring your camera, the ghosts are photo friendly.

The list of Ghostly Images scares and dares doesn't end here! We have special frightseeing events that take place throughout the year so read on.

GHOSTLY THEATRICAL PRODUCTIONS

THESE PRESENTATIONS ARE NOT TO BE MISSED

ROSA'S DEMISE (NEW in 2014)

In 1869 Rosa Charmichael came to Gettysburg to become the Matron of the very successful "Children's Homestead Orphanage". By the mid 1870's things had taken a very dark turn. Rumors of the cruel abuse of the children had spread through the town. Eventually enough evidence had been collected; Rosa was put on trial and found GUILTY! But she didn't go easy. Some believe she didn't go at all and continues to haunt the Orphanage.

After the "Ghost" of Union Soldier, Amos Humiston sets the scene upstairs you will venture to the cellar and join a phantom witness who will present the evidence against Rosa in the very building where the story took place. Listen to Rosa as she continues to argue her case. Be there when Rosas ghost faces her final judgment. You the jury will decide her fate. Will she go to the light or be sent into eternal darkness.

Currently scheduled for May 28, July 2, Sept. 3, and November 19
(Additional dates may be added).

GEORGIA, YOUR SISTER IS DEAD! (Since 2013)

Return with us to 8:30 AM, July 3rd, 1863. Jennie Wade has just been killed. Her mother, who witnessed the death hasn't had time to comprehend the tragedy. As a ghost she continues to piece together the events of that day. Now you, as a visitor to the home, have been drawn into the story. She must not only save the rest of her family but is concerned for your safety as well.

The spirit of a union soldier arrives on the scene with a plan to save all of you. But can the escape route be opened before more horror falls on the building?

If he succeeds in getting you through to safety in the cellar your experience is not yet complete. The space below the house is haunted by the ghost of James Wade, Jennies' father. Having lost his mind in life he continues in death to attack the integrity of anyone who crosses his path. As he sums up the aftermath of his daughter's death you best be prepared for anything!
