

A Christmas Weekend

In Historic Gettysburg

A Yuletide Experience thru time:

The Eisenhower's Farm decorated just as Ike and Mamie would have in the 1950's while listening to their private holiday album collection.

The sights and sounds of a traditional 1861 holiday will surround you at the David Wills House, where Abe Lincoln slept the evening before the Gettysburg Address.

Hear how families celebrated the holidays while their loved ones were at war while visiting the Shriver House and Jennie Wade House. Story tellers in period dress share letters and diaries of soldiers and civilians as they express their desire to be together for the holidays.

Enjoy an authentic Civil War Caroling Feast complete with live entertainment and traditional foods at the beautifully decorated Fairfield Inn.

Find some deals in the 21st century with some shopping at the brightly decorated Gettysburg Outlet Shoppes.

Visit our close neighbors in Hershey to experience Chocolate World, enjoy some hot cocoa and see Santa's reindeers at Hershey's Christmas Candy Lane.
