

GETTYSBURG History and Hauntings! Group Reservations

Gettysburg is considered the bloodiest battle of the Civil War. It has been more than 150 years since the town and fields beyond were littered with the bodies of soldiers. Many tales have been told of strange happenings, experienced on the battlefield, in historic homes and around artifacts seen in several museums.

Why not begin a new tradition and bring your group on a “haunted vacation”!

Hop on a haunted bus tour!

A ghost tour guide will step onto your bus, guiding the bus through the haunted countryside and stopping where others have experienced ghostly activity!

Conduct your own Paranormal Investigation in the cellar of the Orphanage or Jennie Wade House!

Visit one of the 10 top Haunted Inns in America. Descend the stairs of the cellar to the Mourning Theatre for a seated presentation. Period dressed guides tell the long, intriguing story of the Farnsworth House & the spirits that remain.

Have you ever had a Ghostly Encounter? On this 90minute tour, your guide is a GHOST! Hear their haunting tales just as they experienced them many years before. Travel into their haunted homes to find out why their spirits remain

Take a Ghost Tour!

The Jennie Wade House, go inside the home of the only civilian killed during the three days battle. While there you will hear the tragic tale of what happened to Jennie and those she loved as you walk through each room with your guide.

The Homestead Orphanage, where soldier's orphans were given a home in honor of their father's sacrifice, but the once happy home would turn into a living nightmare.

Truth or Scare Tours offer 3 different guided tours, filled with tall tales and tales of truth, but can you guess what is truth and what is scare??

Don't forget to find out more about the history behind the hauntings. In addition to your Ghost Tour or Investigation you don't want to forget a history tour of the Jennie Wade House or the Soldiers Orphanage Homestead. Dressed in period attire, the guides will lead your group through this historic home telling Jennie's tragic tale. Follow the same route her family took while rushing to safety after her untimely death. At the Orphanage you will receive a brief history of the building, learn about the early years of the orphanage, its education and care and the relationship it had with the town.

Join a Licensed Guide in the National Cemetery by day. Walk past graves of the unknown soldiers who are buried within the grounds. See the location where President Lincoln spoke about their sacrifice

Enjoy your lunch or dinner as a local expert shares haunted tales or with Lectures on the Golden Age of Magic and it's bizarre relationship with Spiritualism.

Tour the historic Seminary Ridge building located on the battle lines of the first day. Used as a field hospital, the museum offers a glimpse into the scenes of the past

The Gettysburg Heritage Center museum and film are focused on the civilians of the town and how the battle affected them.

Whether you want a little or a lot, Gettysburg has all the history and super natural tales that go with it to satisfy any appetite. All itineraries are customizable.
