History & Chocolate

HISTORY BEFORE CHOCOLATE...

If you're coming to Central Pennsylvania, there are two things we do very well... History and Chocolate. Your visit to our area of the country would not be complete without touring historic Gettysburg, PA and likewise getting a chance to taste and smell the chocolaty allure of Hershey, PA.

Day 1:

Start your visit at the Seminary Ridge Museum, the site where the fighting began for the Battle of Gettysburg. This modern museum experience, in a historically preserved building, will help orient you to the battle which took place in this small town.

Next, we'll depart for a tour of the battlefield with a Licensed Guide who will help bring the three-day battle to life.

We'll fuel up with a casual lunch and visit to the Gettysburg National Military Park Visitor Center for the Film, Cyclorama Presentation, and Interactive Museum.

Before we rest up for dinner, we'll need to make a stop at one of the historic homes such as the Shriver House for the civilian perspective on the battle. Dinner this evening will be in a historic location with classic Pennsylvania fare and a presentation from a visitor such as Civil War General & Mrs. Grant.

Your evening can conclude with free time to shop, resting at the hotel or for the ambitious and fearless, a ghost tour of one of America's most haunted buildings!

THE CHOCOLATE PART!

Day 2:

After a long day of feeding your intellect, it's time to feed your sweet tooth! We will make the short drive to Chocolate Town USA starting with the Hershey Story Museum where you will learn the story of Milton Hershey in this fascinating look at the rise of the Hershey Company and of course enjoy samples of warm drinking chocolates from around the world!

Next, we'll move on to Chocolate World to enjoy lunch on your own and the Build Your Own Chocolate Bar experience.

After lunch it's time for an in-depth sightseeing and chocolate-tasting journey throughout the Hershey of today and years past with Hershey Trolley Works.

Next, it's time to shop at the incredible Chocolate World gift shop (NO JUDGEMENT!). If you're looking to keep the party rolling before returning to Gettysburg we can make a stop at Troegs Brewery. Enjoy a pint and a snack at the area's most well recognized and awarded brewery.

We'll travel back to Gettysburg for some downtime at the hotel before a fun and entertaining dinner with your friends' sharing stories of your day and making even more memories!
